IV. Lack of unity of invention

1. In response to the invitation (Form PCT/IPEA/405) to restrict or pay additional fees the applicant has:

- ☐ restricted the claims.
- ☐ paid additional fees.
- ☐ paid additional fees under protest.
- ☐ neither restricted nor paid additional fees.

2. ☒ This Authority found that the requirement of unity of invention is not complied with and chose, according to Rule 68.1, not to invite the applicant to restrict or pay additional fees.

The International Search Report only refers to subject-matter relating to SEQ ID Nos 1,26 and 51. In consequence, the International Preliminary Examination Report only relates to subject-matter relating to said SEQ ID Nos.

3. This Authority considers that the requirement of unity of invention in accordance with Rules 13.1, 13.2 and 13.3 is

- ☐ complied with.
- ☐ not complied with for the following reasons:

4. Consequently, the following parts of the international application were the subject of international preliminary examination in establishing this report:

2. Citations and Explanations

1.1). SEQ ID Nos 26 and 51 relate to a human fibrosarcoma cDNA sequence coding for an amino acid sequence (SEQ ID NO 1) having homology to a PPA1 protein of the baker's yeast proton ATPase.

1.2). Document D1 (BIOCHEMICAL AND BIOPHYSICAL RESEARCH COMMUNICATIONS, Vol. 168, pp. 574-579, 1990) describes said PPA1 protein which is homologous to the proteolipid subunit of the H⁺-ATPase complex from bovine chromaffin granules.

2.1). In view of the documents cited within the International Search Report, the claimed matter is novel (Art. 33 (2) PCT).

2.2). Having regard to the above mentions, claims 1-5 do not meet the requirements of Art. 33 (3) PCT for the following reasons:
The person skilled in the art, being aware of the fact that the yeast protein PPA1 is homologous to a subunit of the bovine H⁺-ATPase complex, would have regarded it as obvious to try to isolate the homologous and analogous human sequences, involving nothing else than the application of known techniques in a reasonable expectation of success.

3). The IPEA is of the opinion that the sequences relating to SEQ ID Nos 1, 26 and 51 do not have an industrial application/~~Art. 33(4) PCT~~
The alleged function of being important for the growth of human cells is merely defined without experimental proof in analogy to the function of the PPA1 yeast protein.

Box I Observations where certain claims were found unsearchable (Continuation of item 1 of first sheet)

This International Search Report has not been established in respect of certain claims under Article 17(2)(a) for the following reasons:

1. ☐ Claims Nos.:
because they relate to subject matter not required to be searched by this Authority, namely:
2. ☐ Claims Nos.:
because they relate to parts of the International Application that do not comply with the prescribed requirements to such an extent that no meaningful International Search can be carried out, specifically:
3. ☐ Claims Nos.:
because they are dependent claims and are not drafted in accordance with the second and third sentences of Rule 6.4(a).

Box II Observations where unity of invention is lacking (Continuation of item 2 of first sheet)

This International Searching Authority found multiple inventions in this international application, as follows:

see continuation-sheet

1. ☐ As all required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant, this International Search Report covers all searchable claims.
2. ☐ As all searchable claims could be searched without effort justifying an additional fee, this Authority did not invite payment of any additional fee.
3. ☐ As only some of the required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant, this International Search Report covers only those claims for which fees were paid, specifically claims Nos.:
4. ☒ No required additional search fees were timely paid by the applicant. Consequently, this International Search Report is restricted to the invention first mentioned in the claims; it is covered by claims Nos.:

1-5 in part (subject 1. on next sheet)

Remark on Protest

- ☐ The additional search fees were accompanied by the applicant's protest.
- ☐ No protest accompanied the payment of additional search fees.
